NOTES ON COMPLETION

Join the CIGA:

The Curacao Internet Gaming Association welcomes your membership. To apply, an applicant must meet the qualifications for an Operator or Non Operator member, complete and submit an application form and agree to pay the annual membership fee in force at that time, depending on the type of membership sought. Supporting documentation is to be faxed to +599 9 737 4776. Each application will be assessed on a case-by-case basis and may depend upon the results of background checks.

Before completing the application form, please read the instructions and qualifications below carefully.

The application fee - equal to one year's dues as detailed below - is payable to the "Curacao Internet Gaming Association" and delivered as follows:

Please mail check to:

Curacao Internet Gaming Association
C/o Jumbo Jackpots
E-Commerce Park
E-Zone Vredenberg
Willemstad, Curacao, N.A.

Note that all funds are payable in Antillean Guilders. You will be notified of your acceptance to membership and invoiced for your annual membership dues on the anniversary of the date the application is approved. The application fee is refundable in the event your application is rejected for any reason, and serves as the first year's dues on acceptance of the application.

Notes (please direct questions to any Board Director):

Note that failure either to fully disclose all known information, or to provide complete records as required, may be sufficient reason for the application for CIGA Membership to be refused.

The completed form can be faxed to (please mail the original to the above address):

Board of Directors
Curacao Internet Gaming Association
Fax: +599 9 737 4776

The Application Fee is to be paid as per the instructions above. Processing will NOT commence until the receipt of both a completed Application Form and the Application Fee.

QUALIFICATIONS:

An Operator Member may be (annual dues are 3500 Nafl / Applicant):

An entity or its duly authorized representative or assignee, who shall be duly licensed or otherwise sanctioned, nationally or internationally, to own, operate and/or maintain an interactive gaming operation, including but not limited to a casino, sports book, lottery or bingo establishment, accessible through either public or private telephonic and/or electronic networks (internet, intranet or other electronic communications)

A Non-Operator Member may be (annual dues are 750 Nafl / Applicant):

A. An entity who, while not directly engaged in the ownership and/or maintenance of a gaming operation, or the designing and development of gaming software and operations, is nevertheless a provider of services to either the gaming operator and/or software developer or the general public regarding the interactive gaming business; and

B. An entity that provides products and/or services integral to interactive gaming operations, including but not limited to gaming software designers and vendors; and

C. An entity that, while not currently qualifying as an Operator Member as defined above, contemplates owning and/or operating a gaming enterprise. The entity qualifying as a Non-operator Member under this provision may participate as a Non-operator Member until such time as the Non-operator Member shall be admitted as an Operator Member after review and approval of the Board of Directors.

Non-operator Members shall include prospective owner/operators who have not commenced operations or who may have temporarily suspended operations. Upon commencement or recommencement of operations, such Non-operator Member shall become an Operator Member, subject to the Board of Directors approval, or shall be reinstated to an Operator Member as appropriate, with all rights and obligations entitled to a Operator Member.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Note that failure either to fully disclose all known information, or to provide complete records as required, may be sufficient reason for the application for CIGA Membership to be refused.
2. Each applicant must be listed by its proper, legal name (if an entity such as a corporation or partnership) or full legal name if an individual and its address of legal residency (the location where the executive offices are situated).
3. Each applicant must designate ONLY ONE primary contact.
4. Each applicant must list the proper URL for the member's corporate or main web site. You should also enter the web site name and address for each other site solely owned by you. For Owner/Operator applicants these sites may be all casinos and/or sports books owned entirely by the applicant only. If the applicant is a partner with another individual or entity, or if the casino/sports book is owned by a subsidiary of the applicant, that partnership or subsidiary must also be a member before it may display the membership logo unless the applicant has agreed in writing to be responsible for the obligations of the subsidiary/partnership and such agreement has been filed with the CIGA.
5. To assist the CIGA in referring other members and non-members to the services provided by Members, an Applicant is requested to provide the 3 primary services that the Applicant offers (e.g. type of gaming operation, software supplier, hardware supplier, legal counsel, equipment testing/evaluation, lobbying, research, gaming consultant, financial services, advertising and marketing, etc).
6. The Applicant, by submitting the Application Form, agrees to permit the CIGA or its agent to use the above information to perform whatever checks the CIGA deems appropriate, including contacting third parties, to process the application. A successful Applicant must agree to comply with the CIGA Bylaws, any Membership Rules and Regulations, and the CIGA Code of Conduct.
7. Failure to give true and correct answers to any questions in this form may constitute grounds for the Curacao Internet Gaming Association to refuse an application or to revoke membership that has been granted on the basis of untrue or incorrect, including incomplete, information.
